

mode

transport planning

James Byrne

Geography BSc (Hons)

Associate Director

Associate Director, responsible for managing projects from his home based in Birmingham.

Sectors:

Residential

Education

Industrial

Retail

James Byrne

Responsible for management and production of all elements of transport plans, assessments and input into environmental assessments.

James is an Associate Director within mode; James has a huge amount of experience within the development sector, he has however worked within both private and public sector clients.

James has extensive experience in the production of Transport Assessments, Travel Plans and transportation inputs to Environmental Statements for a wide range of schemes including residential, industrial, retail and education.

James also has experience in developing and implementing Geographic Information Systems (GIS) and Visography TRACC to provide detailed accessibility assessments across a wide range of schemes.

In his spare time, he likes to keep active and can be found trying to master his tennis game, playing football and is a life long suffering Aston Villa supporter.

For more information please contact:

📞 0121 794 8390

✉ jamesbyrne@modetransport.co.uk

mode

transport planning

